Günter Stummvoll (Dr.Phil.) studied sociology at the University of Vienna and at Monash University in Melbourne, Australia and architecture at the Technical University in Vienna. For his graduation in sociology, he conducted research on “Neighbourhood Watch” in Melbourne and on “Community Policing” in Vienna. He has taken post-graduate training in social science at the Institute for Advanced Studies (IHS) in Vienna (2000-2002). He was awarded an EU-Marie Skłodowska Curie Early-Stage Training at the Department of Criminology, Keele University, England (2002-2003).

Günter Stummvoll started his international career in the social sciences as project assistant in the Department of Traffic Psychology at the Austrian Road Safety Board (Kuratorium für Verkehrssicherheit KFV) in 1998-2001. From 2005 to 2008 Günter Stummvoll worked as researcher at the Institute for the Sociology of Law and Criminology (IRKS) in Vienna. In 2008 he was awarded a 2-year EU-Marie Skłodowska Curie Fellowship for the study of ‘European norms and standards in design-led crime prevention’ based at the Centre for Criminological Research at Keele University in the United Kingdom. From Sept. 2010 to Jan. 2012 Günter Stummvoll earned a Marie Skłodowska Curie Re-Integration Grant and was employed at the Department for Building and Environment at Danube-University Krems, Austria, where he conducted research and taught urban sociology and criminology. From Dec. 2014 to Dec. 2016 Günter Stummvoll was a member of the scientific staff at the research institute Mediacult in Vienna, Austria, where he conducted research on “Filmfestivals in Vienna” and “Allotment Gardens in Vienna”.

From March 2017 to February 2022 Günter Stummvoll was employed at the European Centre for Social Welfare Policy and Research in Vienna, Austria, where he conducted research as a principal investigator at the interface of criminal justice, health promotion and social welfare policies (research projects: "Diversion: Therapy instead of Punishment"; "Social Work and Policing"; "Juvenile Gang Crime").

Currently, Günter Stummvoll is employed at the Institute of Conflict Research (Institut für Konfliktforschung) in Vienna, where he coordinated the implementation of the International Self-Report Delinquency Study in Austria. At present, he works in projects on "prevention of burglary", "probation services" and "hate crime".

Günter Stummvoll has a long teaching record. Since 2011 he has been teaching seminars at the Department of Sociology at Vienna University, Austria: “Deviance and social control”, “sociology of trust”, “reading classics in sociology”, “introduction to sociology”, “theories of social action”, “hate crime”, “civil society and theories of democracy” and “research methodology”. From October 2021 to March 2025, he taught courses in sociology and criminology at the University of Innsbruck (AT). At Danube University Krems (Austria) he occasionally teaches a 1-day course on “Criminology and crime prevention by urban design”.
